

Worship Prayer

Lord some things are just so good I'm torn, part of me
Feeling like giving up, the other wanting to be better.
And I'm a bit like that with you.

Your creation is awesome, the galaxies, the animals, the order, the detail,
The sights, sounds, scents, tastes and sensations. Wow!
How excellent your imagination, design, engineering...
Then there's your holiness, your perfectly impossible law,
Which demands judgement or grace. Ouch!
Lord, I thank you for your almost unbelievable grace!
Thank you for Calvary, for forgiving, accepting and renewing me.
More, thank you for loving me with such wise and generous kindness,
For giving me a place in your global family, and an inheritance,
A guaranteed seat at the coming reception in heaven!

Inside I'm kneeling, blown away and yet gathered at the same time.
Outwardly my expressions are pretty limited, but
Please accept this offering from my heart:
Praise to you forever, Father, Son and Spirit!
Thanks without ceasing!
And take me, change me according to your will,
And make me your obedient servant.
Show me how to reflect something of your greatness to those around me,
For the honour and glory of your name.
Yours. Always.

Amen
